I. SIGNIFICANT ITEMS

None to report.

II. OTHER ACTIVITIES

*This relates to a request for SIC
materials for*

1. I have arranged to meet with [ ] and his committee chairman at McNair this afternoon in order to better determine if and how we can help him. Since the material which [ ] seeking represents only his contribution to a committee paper I suspect that it will not have to be extensive. Two or three case studies of the Communist apparatus in action will probably suffice, along with a general description of the Soviet organizations involved in foreign activities.

2. The thin "red" line of SIC staff is bending somewhat this week, but I'm confident it won't break! What with [ ] enjoying a well-deserved vacation in London, [ ] departed for American University, and [ ] still out of action the Introduction to Communism students are being subjected to a heavily concentrated dose of [ ] [ ] has agreed to come back next week for two presentations, and I'll also take on two, so the second week of the course will at least confront the students with some new faces.
